Detailed Action

1. The reply filed on 3-4-05 is not fully responsive to the prior Office Action because:

Submitted claims 1-22 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed (Invention I) for the following reasons:

- Invention II, Claims 1-11, 16-20, reciting “first and second spaced walls defining loading and unloading windows” would require searches in class 414 subclass 222.01 and class 198 sub 347.1, which is establish for loading and unloading functions.
- Invention II, Claims 1 & 11, 16-20, additionally reciting “dish washing area” would require searches in class 134 subclass 48, which is establish for the conveying function in combination with washing.
- Invention III, Claims 21 & 22, directed toward a method of retrofitting a cafeteria tray accumulator and removing an old existing accumulator and installing a new accumulator is also distinct from the originally presented apparatus claims because the method as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand. Additionally, the methods of “removing an existing tray accumulator system” and “installing a new cafeteria tray accumulator system” would require a search in class 198 subclass 617.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Art Unit: 3651

2. Inventions I (claims originally presented) and Invention II (claims 1-11, 16-20) are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the originally presented claims do not required particulars (for example: unloading windows or loading windows or dishwash room or the loading/unloading windows being offset from one another) of the subcombination for patentability. The subcombination has separate utility such as for use in a device used to wash dishes.

3. Inventions III and Invention I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, for example the process of Invention III, claims 21-22, can be accomplished by hand.

4. Inventions III and Invention II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, for example the process of Invention III, claims 21-22, can be accomplished by hand.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
